

Hey Hustler

The Hustler stands, just a man on the job
You can measure his success by the size of his nob.
It's just mind over matter and some people to rob
What difference how you get it, when you're rakin' in a few bob?

Hey Hustler
Shoutin' down the line
Hey Hustler
Got a simple mind?
Does it get you into places where normal people cannot go?

The Hustler sleeps on the seat of his car with his necktie loosened and his chequebook ajar.
He's got loads of good mates, he just don't know where they are Watch out for his charisma when you light his cigar

Hey Hustler
Wearin' out your feet.
Hey Hustler
Got enough to eat?
Do your wife and family love you even though you ain't around?

Did you remember to programme the numbers into your mobile phone?
Will someone ring you when your food is ready at the Tandoori that is your second home?

The Hustler sways with his life in distress
He is equally well-fitted in a suit or a dress
He's indifferent to fashion 'cause his mind is a mess
But don't worry much about him, he's gonna get some rest

Hey Hustler
With your hair gone gray
Hey Hustler
Did you get your way?
Will you bribe a gullible angel and slip inside the Pearly Gates?

Down In Talent Town

Born of the bottle, the car and the screen
Hyped-up and knocked down, looking serene
Selling a service, pouring a drink
Down in talent town

Life is a subset of what you must be
A star in the heavens, financially free
Slave to the camera, food for the rats
Down in talent town

So where is the purpose in living like this?
A fairytale kingdom,
Or taking the piss?

A man in a picture, a face in a crowd
Remember your lines boy, and speak them aloud:
“My world is a vapour, the mist of a dream”
Down in talent town

Sheep, Sheep, Sheep

Now here's a song for all of you with feet to fit the shoe, Who buy some shit and take a bite 'cause someone tells you to
And then proclaim : "I like it. It's the best I ever ate!"
For lack of any other on your plate.

So you're sheep, sheep, sheep to the lies they spin
And there ain't much in it when the mail comes in
No it's not so funny but tomorrow's another day
So look at it that way

And so you do the Given Thing and say what others say
No complicated calculations getting in your way
You put your trust in Jesus™ and the Leader Of The Pack™
No heavy burden on your back

So you're sheep, sheep, sheep to the lies they spin
And there ain't much in it when the mail comes in
No it's not so funny but tomorrow's another day
So look at it that way

Now some might call you average
They'd say you're playing smart
By acting with some other thing
And saying it's your Heart™
You're either on the road to ruin or just mediocrity Makes not a lot of difference to me

So you're sheep, sheep, sheep to the lies they spin
And there ain't much in it when the mail comes in
No it's not so funny but tomorrow's another day
Yeah you jump like a rabbit when they crack that whip
And you queue for the right to take a suckers trip
You're a Market Study but tomorrow's another day
So look at it that way

Step On Me, I Don't Mind

I just want to show the world how stupid I can be Get down on the floor so you can walk all over me

Teach me a lesson
Oh yeah I like it like that I'll accept the rodent treatment when I'm lying flat
I can be manipulated
Why don't you push me around?
Be a brute, be a savage, be a.....

Step on me, I don't mind

I don't like the thing you sell or what I'm asked to pay
But if you treat me badly I will buy it anyway

Make me an offer
I don't know wrong from right
I'll put the punt into punter if it takes all night
If you're comin' or goin' why don't you do it on me?
Be a brute, be a savage, be a.....

Step on me, I don't mind

And when you do I will behave like an animal and I will lick you so I never no I never no I never have to make a choice again

I'm a spineless nothing
I defer my life to you
So give it to me one more time right up the avenue

Step on me, I don't mind

Get With It

I know I ought to say it but I wonder if I should.
It's a rather strange concoction that could be misunderstood.

Okay I promise not to babble and it won't go on too long.
I will lay it all before you in a 90 second song:

Geri write a tune
it got a beat
Gonna pound your head and stamp your feet.
A better combo man,
you could not meet.
Watch the way the world revolves when we all get with it.

Melly sing that song
It sound so nice.
Top ingredients and a lotta spice.
Christ, you know it's cheap at twice the price.
Watch the way the world revolves when we all get with it.

And the years might spell disaster.
And up the wall roses will climb.
Thank their lucky trousers they've got time.

So there I've gone and done it in the twinkling of an eye.
I have told the type of story that the truth cannot deny.

Now You Know

Now that you know
The secret's out, why try to hide it
What do you think of me now

Not long ago
I planned it all and made it happen
Pulled the wool over your eyes

Cause it's strange adventure that I like That I like
When I knew I had you in the dark
Now you've solved the puzzle, will you bite
Will you bite
You know I just did it for a lark

Now that you know
I set you up, you can't forgive me
I never thought that you would

Got a taste for deception in my blood
In my blood
And I know it will never go away

How did I know
The simple truth would send you packing
I guess I'm clever that way

Clementine

Clementine
In a bowl on the table
Concubine
of the Apple and Pear
You need a Fructose revelation
Being obsessed with it Getting undressed with it
Losing a piece of your mind

Clementine
In the clutch of your fingers
Just like a wine
when it drips down your chin
It's a citrus celebration
Lost in the grasp of it Working the clasp of it
Losing a piece of your mind

Intangible
Divine
Un-understandable
Sublime
Impossible

Clementine
Deep in your imagination
Some other time
With the Apple and Pear
